Circular Orders by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

From F. B. Peacock, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, to all Civil Judges and Judicial Commissioners,—(No. 12, dated Calcutta, the 3rd December 1869.)

(Civil Side.)

1. Notwithstanding the instructions contained in Circular Order No. 9 of the 26th February 1867, the Court often find it extremely difficult, and in some cases impossible, to ascertain what documents or exhibits have been actually admitted or relied on by the parties as evidence in the Lower Courts: and hence there is no security that documents and exhibits may not be used or offered in this Court which have never been admitted in evidence or inspected by the Courts below.

2. Whilst therefore the Court take this opportunity of calling the particular attention of all Subordinate Judicial Officers to the instructions contained in the Circular Order above alluded to, and especially to paragraphs 2 and 6 and 7 to 12 of it, they direct that in future, immediately after the conclusion of the trial, the Presiding Officer shall cause to be prepared two lists, one containing all the exhibits admitted as evidence in the case numbered with the same numbers as those by which they are respectively distinguished in the Judges' notes,—which should be in numerical order according to their reception,—the other containing those that have been rejected as inadmissible, lettered alphabetically in consecutive order, and having a column for remarks in which should be entered the shortest possible explanation of the reason of their rejection.

Rejected exhibits after being endorsed are returned to the party producing them (Section 134 C. P. C.), so that the Judge must prepare the list of rejected exhibits from his own notes.

3. The lists shall distinguish the exhibits put in or offered on the part of the plaintiff from those put in or offered on the part of the defendant, and shall be signed by the Presiding Officer and shall form part of the record.

By Order of the High Court,
(Sd.) F. B. Peacock,
Registrar.

From Charles Currie, Esq., c. s., Officiating Judicial Commissioner of Oudh, to the Registrar of the High Court, Calcutta,—(No. 1283, dated Lucknow, the 4th October 1869.)

I have the honor to request that all processes in Civil Suits forwarded for service on persons residing in the city or station of Lucknow may be addressed to the Civil Judge, and not to the Deputy Commissioner of Lucknow, as the latter has no Civil jurisdiction within the city or station.

I have, &c.,
(Sd.) Charles Currie,
Offg. Judicial Commissioner.

Circular Memo. No. 7.

Copy forwarded to all Civil Judges and Judicial Commissioners for information and guidance.

By Order of the High Court,

Advertisement.

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th of January 1870, a Mêla or Fair will be held at Kassalong, in the District of the Chittagong Hill Tracts, to which the general public, and especially the merchants, traders, and inhabitants of Tipperah, Noacolly, Akyab, and Chittagong, are invited. The Chukmas, Mughs, Tipperahs, Bunjoos, Mooroongs, and other tribes residing in the Hill Tracts, as also the independant Frontier Tribes, have also been invited to attend the fair, and to bring with them the produce and manufactures of their own and foreign countries.

2. Two lists are hereto appended, the first shewing the articles of commerce most likely to be in demand among the hill people, and which should be brought to the mêla by merchants of the plains, and the second shewing what articles are likely to be brought for sale by the hill tribes. There are doubtless other goods which, although not at present forming articles of trade, could be advantageously bought or sold at the mêla.

3. The chief approach to Kassalong is from the south-west by the River Kurnafoolee, which falls into the sea at the port of Chittagong, and is navigable throughout the year to boats of 400 maunds burden. There is also a road passing through the hills from Rangonia viâ Rangamuttea to Kassalong, which is open for foot passengers, elephants, bullocks, and ponies.

4. No taxes or bazar dues will be levied on any articles sold at the mêla, and sheds will be provided gratis for the convenience of shopkeepers.

5. The mêla will last for four days, and during its continuance prizes will be offered to the winners in boat and foot races, as well as for manly games and exercises.

No. 52 of 1869

The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1869.

Government of India.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

THE following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 10th December 1869, and was referred to a Select Committee with instructions to make their report thereon in a month:—

No. 21 OF 1869.

A Bill to provide rules relating to quarantine.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower expressly the Governor General of India in Council and the Local Governments to make rules relating to quarantine; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Power to make quarantine rules.

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council and (with the previous sanction of the said Governor General in Council) for the Local Governments respectively, from time to time, to make rules for putting any vessel into a state of quarantine; for regulating the intercourse of vessels in a state of quarantine with the shore or with other vessels; and for regulating the intercourse between places where an infectious disease prevails, and other places.

Quarantine rules to be deemed rules under section 271 of Penal Code.

2. All such rules shall be published in the Gazette of India and (in the case of rules made by a Local Government) also in the local Gazette; and shall thereupon be deemed to be rules made and promulgated under section 271 of the Indian Penal Code.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Indian Penal Code, section 271, provides penalties for disobedience to quarantine rules made and promulgated executively by the Government of India or by any Local Government. But no such rules exist in British India, except, perhaps, under the Bombay Act VI. of 1867, section 14: doubts have been raised as to whether there is any power to make them; and the object of this Bill is to confer expressly the power in question.

WHITLEY STOKES,
Secy. to the Council of the Govr.-Genl. for making Laws and Regulations.

Government of Bengal.

Notification.

The following modifications have been made in the subjects for examination as set forth in the Rules passed by the High Court on the 2nd May 1866, for the qualification, admission, and enrolment of Pleaders and Mooktears, and lately reproduced with Notification dated 9th November 1869, in the Calcutta Gazette of the 10th, 17th, and 24th instant. Act VIII. of 1869 (B. C.) has been added to the Laws relating to Landlord and Tenant. The Law relating to Stamps has been omitted altogether from the list of subjects. And the Code of Criminal Procedure has been made to include the "Code of Criminal Procedure Amendment Act," viz., Act VIII. of 1869.

The Rules which are affected by the modifications in question are Rules 6, 18, and 34, which will now stand as they are given below, and to which the attention of all intending candidates for enrolment as Pleaders and Mooktears is directed.

RULE 6.

Every person may be admitted as a Pleader of the higher grade who shall be qualified as hereinafter prescribed, that is to say,—

1*st*.—If he shall have obtained the Degree of Bachelor in Law of one of the Universities of Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or shall be a Licentiate in Law of one of the said Universities, provided that his application for admission as a Pleader be made within three years from the time of his obtaining such Degree or License, or within such further time as the High Court shall for any special reason allow; or,

2*nd*.—If he shall satisfy the Court that he possesses a competent knowledge of the subjects mentioned in this clause by producing a certificate from the Examiners hereinafter mentioned, that he has passed an examination in the Regulations, Enactments, and Text Books set opposite to the respective subjects. Where two or more books are mentioned in the alternative, it shall be sufficient if the applicant pass in one of such books to be selected by himself.

Subjects.	Regulations, Enactments, and Text Books.
1*st*.—The Law of Property current in Bengal.
A.—With reference to the Permanent Settlement;—to the Government lien on land;—to claims to hold land exempt from the payment of revenue;—and to the mode in which Estates can be brought to sale for arrears of revenue.	Regulations (Bengal) I, VIII, X, XIV, XIX, and XLIV, of 1793, and the Regulations and Acts by which the same have been altered: Act XI of 1859: and the Preamble to Regulation (Bengal) II of 1793.
B.—The Law of under-tenures, and the mode in which the same can be brought to sale for arrears of rent.	Regulation (Bengal) VIII of 1819: Act X of 1859: Act VIII of 1865, (Bengal Council).
C.—The relation of Landlord and Tenant.	Act X of 1859: Act VI of 1862, and Act VIII of 1869 (Bengal Council).
D.—Mortgages: Registration of Assurances.	Macpherson on Mortgages: Act XX of 1866.
E.—The Hindoo Law of inheritance, succession, and adoption.	Dayabhaga and Mitakshara; Dattaka Chandrika, or Macnaghten's Principles of Hindoo Law, first seven chapters.
F.—Mahomedan Law.	Macnaghten's Principles of Mahomedan Law, except Chapter 9.
G.—The Indian Succession Act.	Act X of 1865.
2*nd*.—Obligations arising from Contracts.	Macpherson on Contracts.
3*rd*.—Civil Procedure.	Act VIII of 1859: Act XXIII of 1861: Act XI of 1865.
4*th*.—The Law of Evidence.	Act II of 1855, and Best or Goodeve or Norton on Evidence.
5*th*.—The Law of Limitation.	Act XIV of 1859.
6*th*.—Criminal Law and Procedure.	The Indian Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), and the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act XXV of 1861, and Act VIII of 1869.)

RULE 18.

Every person may be admitted as a Pleader of the lower grade who shall satisfy the Court that he possesses a competent knowledge of the subjects mentioned in this clause, by producing a certificate from the Examiners hereinafter mentioned that he has passed an examination in the Regulations, Enactments, and Text Books, set opposite to the respective subjects:—

Subjects.	Regulations, Enactments, and Text Books.
1*st*.—Hindoo Law.	Macnaghten's Principles of Hindoo Law, first seven chapters.
2*nd*.—Mahomedan Law.	Macnaghten's Principles of Mahomedan Law, except chapter 9.
3*rd*.—Law of Contracts.	Macpherson on Contracts.

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th of January 1870, a Mêla or Fair will be held at Kassalong, in the District of the Chittagong Hill Tracts, to which the general public, and especially the merchants, traders, and inhabitants of Tipperah, Noacolly, Akyab, and Chittagong, are invited. The Chukmas, Mughs, Tipperahs, Bunjoos, Mooroongs, and other tribes residing in the Hill Tracts, as also the independant Frontier Tribes, have also been invited to attend the fair, and to bring with them the produce and manufactures of their own and foreign countries.

2. Two lists are hereto appended, the first shewing the articles of commerce most likely to be in demand among the hill people, and which should be brought to the mêla by merchants of the plains, and the second shewing what articles are likely to be brought for sale by the hill tribes. There are doubtless other goods which, although not at present forming articles of trade, could be advantageously bought or sold at the mêla.

3. The chief approach to Kassalong is from the south-west by the River Kurnafoolee, which falls into the sea at the port of Chittagong, and is navigable throughout the year to boats of 400 maunds burden. There is also a road passing through the hills from Rangonia viâ Rangamuttea to Kassalong, which is open for foot passengers, elephants, bullocks, and ponies.

4. No taxes or bazar dues will be levied on any articles sold at the mêla, and sheds will be provided gratis for the convenience of shopkeepers.

5. The mêla will last for four days, and during its continuance prizes will be offered to the winners in boat and foot races, as well as for manly games and exercises.

List of articles which will find a ready sale in the Kassalong Fair if brought by merchants.

APPENDIX TO

The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, 1869.

NOTICE

Is hereby given that the sale of the Proprietary right of Government to the Estates enumerated in the following Advertisements of Sale will be made subject to these

CONDITIONS OF SALE:

1*st*.—The Estates to be sold, subject to the Government Revenue against each, to the highest bidders above the upset price.

2*nd*.—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings and laws in force, and Purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the Schedule of Assessment made by the Revenue Authorities.

3*rd*.—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rupees 100, the whole amount to be paid down at once.

4*th*.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rupees 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding Office day, the sale to be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the Estate to be again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting Purchaser after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

5*th*.—In addition to the ordinary Government Revenue fixed on the Estates, the Purchasers shall be bound to pay for the construction of roads and improvement of communications one per cent. on the Government Revenue assessed from the date of entry upon the purchase. This sum will be leviable in the same manner as other arrears of Revenue.

By Order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

R. B. CHAPMAN,

Secretary.

APPENDIX TO

The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1869.

NOTICE

Is hereby given that the sale of the Proprietary right of Government to the Estates enumerated in the following Advertisements of Sale will be made subject to these

CONDITIONS OF SALE:

1*st.*—The Estates to be sold, subject to the Government Revenue against each, to the highest bidders above the upset price.

2*nd.*—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings and laws in force, and Purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the Schedule of Assessment made by the Revenue Authorities.

3*rd.*—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rupees 100, the whole amount to be paid down at once.

4*th.*—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rupees 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding Office day, the sale to be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the Estate to be again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting Purchaser after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

5*th.*—In addition to the ordinary Government Revenue fixed on the Estates, the Purchasers shall be bound to pay for the construction of roads and improvement of communications one per cent. on the Government Revenue assessed from the date of entry upon the purchase. This sum will be leviable in the same manner as other arrears of Revenue.

By Order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

R. B. CHAPMAN,

Secretary.
